Get to grips with the basics of Business Continuity

This two day course addresses each stage of the Business Continuity Management life cycle. Ideal for those who need to understand the fundamentals of Business Continuity practices and techniques, it's suitable for people from all sizes of organisation, and from industrial, commercial, public and voluntary sectors.

The programme covers:

- BCM programme management
- Understanding your organisation
- Business Impact Assessments
- Risk Assessment
- BCM strategies
- Developing and implementing plans
- Building a BCM culture
- BC plan exercise, maintenance and audit

Delegates will enjoy the opportunity to work within a simulated event at LINK's command centre training facilities. As a member of a business continuity response team, they'll have the chance to be part of a live exercise.

The programme is tailored to your organisation's needs and can be taken in-house. Attendance gives affiliate BCI membership for those who are not already members.

Dates for 2008: 5-6 Feb, 20-21 May, 23-24 Sep and 25-26 Nov
