

How to access the BCI mentoring scheme

To join the mentoring scheme just takes a few clicks on the BCI website.

To start, go to the website and log in to your personal profile.

Once you've logged in then click your name at the top of the screen and when the menu below appears select 'profile homepage'

Then you should click the box shown below.

Which will bring up this screen and allow you to click 'Directory'

Homepage → Profile homepage → My account

On the same screen you will also be able to add your biography which will be crucial for helping other members find out more about you.

For the best results though you should be proactive and from the community directory, using the filter (below), you can search for BCI members who are looking for a member to mentor. Once you have found somebody who you think could help you then you can contact them via their profile.
